How we are organized

The Chapel of the Cross organization is divided into six commissions that integrate clergy, staff, and parishioners. Our opportunities for service, involvement, and engagement are organized by the six commissions:

- worship
- Christian formation,
- pastoral care, hospitality and fellowship
- outreach and social justice
- finance
- administration

These opportunities also align with the five priorities of the strategic mission and ministry plan (abbreviated here):

- Shaping Christian lives
- Creating Christian community
- Inviting, welcoming, and engaging all
- Sharing our faith, values and voice
- Sustaining our church

The commissions are accountable for implementing the major priorities of the strategic mission and ministry plan and empowered to decide what action steps to take to move forward on the plan. Committees and groups within each commission gather three or four times a year to share information, receive training, and collaborate on special projects. We urge you to find your place at the Chapel of the Cross and in our mission and ministry structure.

For more information on the strategic mission and ministry plan or commission organizational structure, visit our website at thechapelofthecross.org.

[Laura Benton, 919-929-2193, lbenton@thechapelofthecross.org; David Frazelle, 919-929-2193, dfrazelle@thechapelofthecross.org]

Foyer Dinner Groups – A wonderful way to meet other Chapel of the Cross parishioners, get better acquainted with those you may already know, share food and fellowship, and form friendships that give a special sense of belonging in our large parish. Traditional foyer groups of eight to ten folks meet monthly for dinner at a member’s home from roughly September to June. Responsibility for providing the food is shared, with the host family or individual preparing the main dish and the others bringing everything from appetizers to dessert. Concerned that you cannot commit to a monthly gathering? Consider joining our non-traditional foyer group, which provides a variety of opportunities for fellowship and fun, where you can attend gatherings as you have time. This group includes singles, working folk’s, retirees, and folks who travel a lot. Groups are formed in the fall but can be added to at any time [Barbara Lankford, 919-533-6435, blcaswell@gmail.com]

Good Samaritan Guild – Parishioners who respond to the needs of other parishioners in times of short-term crisis or illness with defined tasks such as delivering casseroles and soups, transportation to health care appointments and church services, running errands, and brief respite assistance. The guild also maintains a medical equipment loan closet [Peggy Pratt, 919-493-8059, pegpratt@yahoo.com]

Greeters – a group of parishioners who welcome worshippers at Sunday Services and assist visitors following the services [Elaine Westbrook, 919-489-4985, ewestbrook@fmrealty.com]

Guild of the Christ Child – A group of parishioners who welcome newborns to the parish and assist their parents [Jennifer Adams, 919-967-0715, adams0814@bellsouth.net]

Kitchen Guild – Members of the kitchen Guild serve Sunday morning coffee, coordinate parish receptions and dinners, prepare casseroles and other items for pastoral care and outreach, and staff special events. With advent of our new kitchen and event space, there will be more opportunities to learn to use a professional kitchen and prepare delicious food for large groups. Volunteers will be trained and given an orientation to the new kitchen. All are welcome in the kitchen! [Ellen Cole, 919-636-0645, ellencole@gmail.com]

Naomi’s Network – A group of parish widows that gathers episodically for fun, for support, and for service [Nancy Tunnessen, 919-969-8664, ntunnessen@nc.rr.com]

Newcomers and Membership – If you are a newcomer, please stop by the Newcomer Table in the Fellowship Hall after the 9 am or 11:15 service. You may also fill out the tear-off portion of the welcome brochure in the pew and drop it in the collection plate, if that is easier for you. Greeters at each service will be happy to give you additional information or direct you to the Newcomers Table. Orientation classes are offered regularly between the 9:00 and 11:15 a.m. services; no pre-registration is required. These Sunday morning sessions include the topics of ministry, history, and the many ways the Chapel of the Cross works to serve the Church and the community; the classes also give you a chance to meet our clergy and other newcomers. A tour of the parish buildings is included after one of the sessions. A fall newcomer reception is held at the church; a spring gathering is held at the home of the Rector. Newcomers may also be assigned a Shepherd to facilitate making connections at the Chapel of the Cross.

If you are interested in joining the Chapel of the Cross and have questions about how to proceed, please call the office and make an appointment with one of the clergy. If you are an Episcopalian coming from another parish, Travis Powers in the church office can help you request a letter of transfer from your home parish.

If you are new to the Christian faith, or new to the Episcopal church, we offer regular classes for both youth and adults—called Inquirers’ Classes that offer an in-depth exploration of the Christian faith, as well as what it means to be an Episcopalian. Our inquirers’ classes, which begin in September and run through the following April, are led by clergy. Anyone interested in a deeper understanding of faith—or an Episcopal refresher course!—is invited to participate. The course welcomes those new to the Chapel of the Cross and to the Episcopal Church and is an excellent preparation for adult baptism or confirmation. The Bishop of North Carolina visits every year during the Easter season for confirmation and reaffirmation of baptismal vows.

Newcomer Bread Ministry – Parishioners who enjoy baking bread use a tried and true ‘Chapel of the Cross Bread’ recipe. Visitors who register at the Newcomer Table following worship are given a loaf of bread as a token of our warm welcome to the parish. [Harriet Pegram, jpegram1@nc.rr.com, 919-403-7242]

Newcomer Orientation – Occasional Sunday morning sessions led by the rector for all who consider themselves newcomers and wish to learn more about the ministry of the parish [Robert Davenport, 919-929-2193, rdavenport@thechapelofthecross.org]

Newcomer Shepherds – Newcomer Shepherds are assigned to newcomers or visitors who have registered at the Newcomer’s Table following a Sunday service. Shepherds contact newcomers by telephone to invite them to church activities and to church-related social events, enabling them to connect with parishioners and vice-versa. Welcome events are held in parishioners’ homes to allow all to become better acquainted in a social setting. Shepherds maintain contact by telephone for three, or more, months, if necessary. Many of the current members of the Hospitality Guild were served by a shepherd when they were new arrivals. [Patty Courtright, 919-408-3099, pattycourtright@gmail.com]
Parish Visitors – Lay people and clergy who regularly visit homebound parishioners and those in nursing homes to maintain the link between their lives and the Church
[Victoria Jamieson-Drake, 919-929-2193, vjd@thechapelofthecross.org]

Prayer Circle – A group of parishioners who pray regularly for those who are in need of healing, or who have special concerns or thanksgivings; confidential prayer requests may be sent to the Rev. [Victoria Jamieson-Drake, 919-929-2193, vjd@thechapelofthecross.org]

Support Team Ministry – A ministry incorporating trained teams of people inside and outside the parish to serve those who need short term or longer term care and support using the model developed by the Support Team Network and supported locally by Project Compassion
[Victoria Jamieson-Drake, 919-929-2193, vjd@thechapelofthecross.org; www.project-compassion.org]

Youth Council – A group of parishioners, mostly in their teens, that works with the Associate for Parish Ministry and Youth Minister in enhancing the parish youth programs
[David Frazelle, 919-929-2193, dfrazelle@thechapelofthecross.org; Laura Benton, 919-929-2193, lbenton@thechapelofthecross.org]

Outreach & Social Justice

Commission Chair - Allison Worthy

ABC Sale – The Attic, Basement, Closet Sale held annually to provide goods at low cost to the community and to raise money for various outreach ministries.

Circles of Support – A program in Orange County, administered by IFC, teaming faith-based or civic groups with homeless individuals/families now living in shelters or transitional housing and receiving homelessness case management services, who are ready to transition to independent housing. The 8-10 person Support Circle Team provides relational, material, practical, and financial support for its partner over a 12-month period. Training and ongoing support from IFC is provided so that members have a clear understanding of their role and are equipped with skills and information that will help them become effective partners.
[Shannon Gigliotti, IFC, 919-929-6380, sgigliotti@ifcmailbox.org
Perri Kersch, OMC Chair, 919-824-8196, perri@neat-freak.com]

CROP Hunger Walk – A nationwide event that emphasizes the Christian role in feeding the world’s hungry and providing fresh water to remote villages [http://www.ifcweb.org/cropwalk.html]

Environmental Stewardship Committee – A committee mandated by Diocesan Convention that fosters a greater understanding of the theological basis for environmental stewardship, provides education regarding the environmental challenges facing our plant, and promotes actions that reflect responsible environmental stewardship of God’s creation
[Graham Swift, 919-960-0832, grahamgswift@aol.com]

Global Missions Committee – A committee appointed by the rector with the approval of the vestry that represents and involves the parish in mission work outside the United States. The committee pursues engagement with the global initiatives of the Episcopal Church, builds partnerships across geographic and cultural boundaries, and shares in the presence and work of Christ in the world
[Judy Wyne, 919-533-6709, judy.wyne@gmail.com]
Habitat for Humanity – Chapel of the Cross partners with two Habitat for Humanity groups to build safe, affordable housing for God’s people in need. One partnership is with Orange County AME & other Episcopal churches [Harry Watson, 919-933-7050, hwatson@email.unc.edu]. The second partnership is with UNC students [Mark Biggers, biggers@utsl.com]

Inter-Faith Council for Social Services – A community organization that provides food, shelter, and information to those in need, as well as assistance with their financial, medical, and other needs [Ann Newman, 919-932-1755, anewchel@gmail.com]

Johnson Service Corps – An eleven month internship opportunity for young adults between the ages of 21 and 30 who are college graduates or have equivalent experience. As an affiliate of the Episcopal Service Corps, JSC provides avenues for young adults from across the nation to come to Chapel Hill and work in social justice non-profit placements, live in intentional community, and participate in vocational discernment, leadership training, and spiritual development. JSC invites church and community members to take our course in Servant Leadership along with the eight corps members each fall, and we welcome those who would like to serve as a mentor or committee member. JSC is a 501c3 non-profit organization that is supported by the generosity of our community; all donations are tax-deductible. [Sarah Horton-Campbell, Executive Director, 919-442-2568, sarah@johnsonservicecorps.org, www.johnsonservicecorps.org]

Justice United – A non-profit organization of more than two dozen community institutions, serving over 5,000 families in Orange County. The organization brings communities together across race, faith, and economic status to ensure that hopes for a better Orange County translate into concrete actions [Nancy Tunnessen, 919-969-8664, ntunnessen@nc.rr.com]

Outreach Ministry Committee – A vestry committee charged with focusing the community outreach of the parish by providing opportunities for parishioner participation in social outreach activities, supporting individual ministries, promoting relevant educational opportunities, reviewing funding requests, and making recommendations for outreach expenditures to the vestry [Perri Kersh, 919-824-8196, perri@neat-freak.com]

Preschool at the Chapel of the Cross – A separately incorporated preschool operating weekdays from 8:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. that provides children from age two to five a loving, stimulating setting in which to learn about themselves, others, and their world [Laura Gelblum, preschool director, director@pcc-ch.org, 919-932-5074; http://www.pcc-ch.org]
